Dear Vince:

On behalf of the Easter Seals family, please accept my deepest thanks for your generosity in developing a partnership with us around your feature film War Eagle, Arkansas. We are truly honored to host premier showings of this warm and touching film for our friends and supporters in benefit of Easter Seals' services for children and adults with disabilities and their families.

You've given us an incredible opportunity to tell our story as we are sharing yours through this amazing film. War Eagle, Arkansas is a perfect coming-of-age story about friendship and life choices. What we find especially poignant about your movie is the fact that it centers on the true story of your son Vincent and his best friend, Tim. The film's characters of Enoch and Wheels portray a friendship that says everything Easter Seals has ever tried to say about how critical it is for each of us to see and know a person – and not a disability; and that people who live with disabilities are truly individuals, looking for ways to participate and be independent.

War Eagle, Arkansas is a beautiful, as one of your reviewers wrote, "love song" of a film with an amazing cast, and we thank you for letting us be a part of your journey. When you've garnered top awards at the many film festivals you're visiting and are ready to go into distribution, please know that we'll be spreading the word. War Eagle, Arkansas is a "must see," and we're hoping it will also be an Oscar nominee.

Very truly yours,
